The sixth volume of our series “Discover...” offers children the opportunity to approach and learn more about the seas and oceans. This title with fascinating facts and information will guide our young readers from the ocean's origin to the natural treasures of the seabed as well as the discovery of creatures from other ages living in the abysses. Similar to previous titles in this series, we have kept to the winning concept: Entertaining, Fun and Educational! It's quite unique as it combines gripping text, realistic and fun illustrations as well as spectacular pictures! This new title comes obviously with a 4 view lenticular on the front cover, a trademark of this best-selling collection.

Please note that upon request from some of our clients, we have entirely redesigned the cover of our "sport" title including the 4 view lenticular to be better aligned with a more popular and recognized sport. A great opportunity to re-launch this title alongside the new title and the 4 others of this tremendously successful series.
