

Stories (Witches, Princesses, Pirates & Horses)

- Unique stories... with a twist!
- Beautiful stickers
- Quizzes to help readers identify with the heroes!

Alas, Bruno does not find any wood, and the island's inhabitants are forced to eat something other than pizza for the first time in their lives.

Oliver, the shepherd, gives them goat's cheese – but they do not like it!

Regina, the gardener, provides courgettes and asparagus, but everyone finds these too bitter.

As for Simona, the fisherman – no-one wants what he's got! There is nothing to be done; the residents of Margueta Island will only eat pizza.

One morning, they come to the palace and stand under Queen Paola's window, shouting

"No more courgettes!"
"Wood for pizza!"

The princesses lean on the balcony of their room, looking worried.

"What if we ate uncooked pizza?" asks Bianca.

"Ugh! Don't even think about it!" Monza replies. Suddenly there is a loud noise.

BOOM!

"The volcano is active today," says Bruno.

Monza says nothing; she is thinking. Suddenly, she cries: "I have an idea! Come with me, Bianca!"

Your Papers Please!

Olga is a very, very busy witch... too busy! When she wants to register her children or buy a new black robe, the whistles around at top speed on her magic broom.

This morning, she is going to see her friend Fierrofillo. As always, she flies very fast so as not to be late.

Whoosh!

She zips through the air. Suddenly, Olga hears a siren.

"Oh no! It's the magic police!"

A witch-policewoman approaches Olga.

"Tell me, dear lady, do you have any idea how fast you were going?"

"Um... three miles!"

"Are you kidding? You were flying at five leagues!"

"Really? That fast?"

"OK, miss, your papers please!" says the policewoman.

"Um, I left them in my cottage," the witch stammers.

The policewoman sees Olga's magic wand; it only makes a few pathetic little sparks.

"This wand is out of order and you are too!"

+ QUIZ

What sort of a rider are you?

Answer these questions to find out!

1) You would give your horse...

- a mythical name like Achilles.
- an old English name such as Edgar.
- an exotic name like Naacian.

2) You prefer to ride...

- in the fields behind your house.
- at the village market.
- out in the open, in the mountains.

3) For you, riding is...

- above all, a hobby.
- about winning matches!
- a great way to make new friends.

4) If you fall off your horse...

- you climb right back into the saddle and refuse to give in so fast.
- you analyse what happened to avoid it happening again.
- you give yourself a chance to calm down before getting back on.

5) Your favourite type of horse is...

- a mustang.
- a stallion.
- Actually, horses aren't really your thing... You prefer ponies!

Ref.: P0147

- 4 titles
- 24 pages + sticker spread
- + soft cover
- Size: 207 x 265 mm

Children will just love reading these fun stories of slightly unusual princesses, pirates, witches and horses! Each book comes with a short quiz to discover what kind of princess/pirate/witch/rider the reader is, so that children can identify with these unique heroes.

+ STICKERS

